Overview Statement

Structures and Governance of the Party

Ard Fheis

This convenes once a year and is the governing and policy making body of Sinn Féin where delegates, directly elected by members of cumainn and other bodies, decide on Party policy and elect the National Officer Board and 12 members of the Ard Comhairle.

Ard Comhairle

The Ard Comhairle meets every six weeks and is responsible for running the Party between Ard Fheiseanna, for the overall implementation of Sinn Féin Policy and strategy and for national Co-ordination.

National Officer Board

The National Officer Board is elected by the delegates at the Ard Fheis and meets monthly with responsibility for national political Co-ordination, strategic planning and oversight and accountability.

Coiste Seasta

The Cosite Seasta meets fortnightly and is responsible for the day to day business of the Party between Ard Comhairle meetings. All National departments are accountable to the Ard Comhairle through the Coiste Seasta.

Directorates

The 6 and 26 County Directorates are responsible for developing and implementing political, organisational and electoral strategy and providing political direction to party structures in their respective areas. They work under the direction of the Ard Comhairle.

Cúigí

There are four Cúigí - 6 Counties, Dublin, Ireland South and Midland North West. They have responsibility for the Party within their region and work under the direction of the two Directorates.

The Ard Chomhairle is responsible for the adoption of the financial statements each year.

The members of the Ard Chomhairle from April 2016 were:

Annual Report For The Year Ended 31 December 2016

These financial statements have been prepared in compliance with FRS102, 'The Financial Reporting Standard applicable in the UK and Republic of Ireland'.

2016 was a year of great significance for Irish people as we celebrated the 100th anniversary of the 1916 Rising. We held a number of major events including at the Mansion House in January, remembering lost leaders on Easter weekend at Arbour Hill and a celebration outside the GPO in Dublin to mark the date of the Rising. We also participated in the key state events. The key theme surrounding all of the events was Irish re-unification.

We were involved in two major election campaings - the Assembly election in the 6 Counties and the General Election in the 26 Counties and received our biggest mandate. Throughout the year we led the opposition to the so-called 'new politics' embraced by Fianna Fáil and Fine Gael. This conservative alliance worsened the crisis in the health service and massively increased the level of homelessness. During the year we set out our alternative budget and at it's core was the need to reduce the cost of living, increased investment in public service and fair taxation. We used our Dáil strength to stand against corruption and cronyism.

We launched two major campaigns on health and housing and were successful in introducing legislation on banded hour contracts, medical cards for seriousl ill children and protecting consumers rights. We brought forward proposals on a range of issues including the abolition of the mandatory retirement age, greater rent certainty and security of tenure for tenants in the private rented sector, the extension of Presidential voting rights to citizens in the north and the Diaspora and the abolition of water charges. We also made a submission to the Citizens Assembly calling for the repeal of the eight amendment and the enacting of legislation to allow for eterminations in cases of fatal foetal abnormalities, rape and incest.

In the aftremath of the vote for Brexit, Sinn Féin launched a major campaign to respect the vote of the people in the North to remain in the EU. We published a major document setting out the case for designated special status for the North in the EU and were successful in getting the Irish government to establish and all island civic dialogue on the issue.

We launched a landmark reconciliation document "Towards an Agreed and Reconciled Future" and continued to prioritise this important work. Our Health Minister in the north Michelle O'Neill launched her 10-year vision, to transform the health system.

In the North the credibility of the Assembly, Executive and the office of the First and Deputy First Minister was seriously damaged as a result of the behaviour of the DUP in the cash for ash RHI scandal. Martin McGuinness asked Arlene Foster to stand aside while an investigation is taking place. Just prior to Christmas a DUP Minister attempted to remove £50k bursaries from an Irish language initiative, something which deepened the crisis in the political institutions in the North.

Towards the end of the year we launched a major recruitment drive substantially increasing the number of young people and women in the party.

Statement of the National Treasurers Responsibilities For The Year Ended 31 December 2016

The National Treasurers are responsible for preparing the annual report and the financial statements in accordance with applicable Irish law and regulations.

The Director of Finance is responsible for maintaining proper accounts of all income and expenditure, together with the assets and liabilities of Sinn Féin. The Director of Finance is accountable to the National Treasurers as directed by An Ard Chomhairle.

Irish law requires the National Treasurers to prepare financial statements for each financial year. Under the law, the National Treasurers have elected to prepare the financial statements in accordance with Irish law and FRS 102 "The Financial Reporting Standard applicable in the UK and Republic of Ireland" issued by the Financial Reporting Council, and promulgated by the Institute of Certified Public Accountants in Ireland. Under the law, the National Treasurers must not approve the financial statements unless they are satisfied that they give a true and fair view of the assets, liabilities and financial position of the Party as at the financial year end date and of the profit or loss of the Party for the financial year.

In preparing these financial statements, the National Treasurers are required to:

- select suitable accounting policies and then apply them consistently;
- make judgments and accounting estimates that are reasonable and prudent;
- state whether the financial statements have been prepared in accordance with applicable accounting standards, identify those standards, and note the effect and the reasons for any material departure from those standards; and
- prepare the financial statements on the going concern basis unless it is inappropriate to presume that the company will continue in business.

The Director of Finance is responsible for ensuring that the Party keeps or causes to be kept, adequate accounting records which correctly explain and record the transactions of the Party, enable at any time the assets, liabilities, financial position and surplus or deficit of the Party to be determined with reasonable accuracy, and to enable them to ensure that the financial statements and annual report comply with Irish law. The Director of Finance is also responsible for safeguarding the assets of the Party and hence for taking reasonable steps for the prevention and detection of fraud and other irregularities.

Signed on Behalf of the National Treasurers;

Independent Auditors Report to the Treasurer's of Sinn Fein for the year ended 31st December 2016

We have audited the financial statements of Sinn Féin for the year ended 31st December 2016, which comprises the Statement of Accounting Policies, the Income and Expenditure Account, the Balance Sheet, the Statement of Cash Flows and the related notes. The financial reporting framework that has been applied in their preparation is Irish law and accounting standards issued by the Financial Reporting Council and promulgated by the Institute of Certified Public Accountants in Ireland (Generally Accepted Accounting Practice in Ireland), including FRS 102 The Financial Reporting Standard applicable in the UK and Republic of Ireland.

This report is made solely to the Treasurers of Sinn Féin in accordance with the provisions of the Electoral Act 1997 and Guidelines issued by the Standards in Public Office Commission. Our audit work has been undertaken so that we might state to the Treasurers those matters that we are required to state to them in the audit report and for no other purpose. To the fullest extent permitted by law, we do not accept or assume responsibility to anyone other than the Treasurers of Sinn Féin as a body for our audit work, for this report, of for the opinions we have formed.

Respective responsibilities of the Treasurers and Auditors

As explained more fully in the Treasurers' Responsibility Statement set out on page 9, the Treasurers are responsible fo the preparation of the financial statements and for being satisfied that they give a true and fair view and otherwise comply with the Electoral Act 1997. Our responsibility is to audit and express an opinion on the financial statements in accordance with Irish Law and International Standards on Auditing (UK and Ireland). Those standards require us to comply with the Auditing Practices Board's Ethical Standards for Auditors.

Scope of the audit of the financial statements

An audit involves obtaining evidence about the amounts and disclosures in the financial statements sufficient to give reasonable assurance that the financial statements are free from material misstatement, whether caused by fraud or error. This includes an assessment of: whether the accounting policies are appropriate to the Sinn Féin Party's circumstances and have been consistently applied and adequately disclosed; the reasonableness of significant accounting estimates made by the Treasurers and the overall presentation of the financial statements.

In addition, we read all the financial and non-financial information in the annual report to identify material inconsistencies with the audited financial statements and to identify any information that is apparently materially incorrect based on, or materially inconsistent with, the knowledge acquired by us in the course of performing the audit. If we become aware of any apparent material misstatements or inconsistencies we consider the implications for our report.

Opinion on the financial statements

In our opinion the financial statements:

- give a true and fair view of the assets, liabilities and financial position of the Sinn Féin Party as at 31st December 2016 and of its surplus for the year then ended; and
- have been properly prepared in accordance with the provisions of the Electoral Act 1997 and Guidelines issued by the Standards in Public Office Commission.

Other matters on which we are required to include an opinion

- We have obtained all the information and explanations which we consider necessary for the purposes of our audit.
- In our opinion the accounting records of the Sinn Féin Party were sufficient to permit the financial statements to be readily and properly audited.
- The financial statements are in agreement with the accounting records.
- In our opinion the information given in the Treasurers' report is consistent with the financial statements.
